

Village of Cuyahoga Heights Newsletter ~ November 2017

From the Mayor:

With the heaviest of hearts we're faced with the loss of another young adult. Allison Suhy passed away on November 7 at the age of 18. She was the daughter of our Fire Chief Michael Suhy; granddaughter of Dianne Suhy and great-granddaughter of Bernice Suhy. This horrible tragic resets your mind, and really makes you stop and look at how petty most things are in our day-to-day lives. I can't even imagine what goes through the minds and hearts of parents when the unimaginable happens. So please, keep the Suhy & Johnston families in your thoughts and prayers.

Events

Our annual Halloween party went off without a hitch, and it was nice to see several new residents in attendance. There was plenty of refreshments and goodies, and back by popular demand, the Flower Clown entertained our little ones. The Bartlett's really got into the spirit and did a great job with their costumes. Rachel was Belle while Myles dressed up as Chip, and James was the Mad Hatter.

Don't forget that Santa and Mrs. Claus will be visiting our resident children on Sunday, December 17. If you and your children will be home on that day and want Santa to stop by, please make sure to fill out a stocking registration form which is included in this newsletter.

As in past practice, anyone wishing to donate non-perishable food items for the Christmas holiday can do so. Since 2008, our office has been assisting in a holiday gift/food drive that helps some of our folks here in town during the holiday. Please leave your non-perishable items on your front porch by 11:00 a.m. and our helpers will pick up the bags on Sunday, December 17 during Santa's visit. If you would like to donate to our cause, please contact our office.

And lastly, our Christmas lighting contest takes place on Sunday, December 17. So don't forget to turn on your Christmas lights at your home at 5:00 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for 1st Place, 2nd Place and 3rd Place. Good luck and happy decorating.

Congratulations

Frank & Kim Schoeffler (pictured to the right) celebrated their 44th anniversary on November 10. Service Director Dave Sammons finally tied the knot on October 27 to Ronae Dombos (pictured to the left), and I had the honor of performing their marriage ceremony. Best wishes to both couples...and many more years of health, prosperity and happiness.
