ALL ELECTIONS ARE IMPORTANT: HERE'S WHY

Our elected leaders decide how much local, state and federal tax you pay and how it is spent. They create policies concerning just about all of the things that touch our lives: roads, bridges, schools, Medicare, Medicaid, parks, public transportation, the military, public assistance and immigration. We also elect judges and prosecutors who control our system of justice.

GENERAL ELECTION VOTER GUIDE

In midterm general elections turnout is normally about 40%. If this trend continues, four out of ten people will decide who holds the highest offices in Ohio and Washington D.C.

YOUR VOTE MATTERS! STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

There is no good excuse for skipping the November 6, 2018 General Election. Voting by mail, voting early at the Board or on Election Day is easy and convenient.

The November 6th General Election

This is called a Midterm Election because it is conducted at the halfway mark in a president's four-year term in office. This is when there are elections for all members of the U.S. House of Representatives.

A strong democracy depends upon participation in elections. Make your voting plan today! First make sure you are registered at your current address, then choose your voting method and cast your ballot.

Voters have many important decisions to make from federal offices to important issues:

Statewide candidates:

Governor Secretary of State
Auditor Attorney General
Treasurer Supreme Court

Federal candidates:

U.S. Senate and Congress

State representative:

Ohio House and Senate

County candidates:

County Executive and County Council
County Judges

Sample ballots are available on the Board's website to allow people to study the candidates and issues prior to voting.

You are invited to find the Board of Elections on Facebook and Twitter.
