

From the Sports Commissioner

Our last fall sport, basketball, is underway for the children in all three villages. By now, all parents should have been contacted by coaches. If you haven't heard from a coach, please let me know right away and I'll be happy to assist.

Similar to 2018, below are the registration deadlines for all recreational sports in 2019. As deadlines approach, please be sure to turn in your registration forms on time to our Village Hall to help ensure that your child/children are placed on teams.
