 Home of Historical Committee
 &
 Boy Scout Troop 28

We have had some great pictures posted on the historical Facebook page, so this issue shows some of the posts for those of you without a computer or Facebook. May's issue will again tell about a couple more of the homes on the 1874 map.

Do You Know?

Howdy! It's Cuyahoga Heights.
After separating from Newburg Heights and forming the township of Willow, the secessionists have now organized the village of Cuyahoga Heights. They will elect officers March 16.

Small piece on the front page of the March 5, 1918 Plain Dealer.

Committee News

The committee is working on a tour to Calvary Cemetery. If we get enough interest the tour will be sometime during the week before Memorial Day. If you would like to go or know anyone that would. Please contact Mark Chase or the Village Hall.

The Historical Committee's next meeting will be May 7th from 10 AM till 12 noon. Our Annual Memorial Day Open House will be May 30th from 9AM to 1PM.

All meeting dates for 2016 are listed to the left. Everyone is welcome to attend the meetings, or look at the displays at the Kennedy House during this time. You can also schedule a time to visit by contacting any committee member or the village hall. Cuyahoga Heights Memories Page, the Historical Committee's Facebook page is a closed group page, meaning you have to go to the page & ask to join. Anyone with a connection to the village or the Cuyahoga Heights school is welcome to join. Don't forget our web page. They are both listed to the left. The Willow House Times is posted the 1st week of the month on our Facebook & web site.
