Service Employee Spotlight

Permanent Part-time Laborer, Zach Bernstein

"I was born and raised in Valley View with my parents, Kristin and Ken, and my siblings, Alyssa and Nick. I attended Cuyahoga Heights Schools and the Cuyahoga Valley Career Center until I graduated in May of this year. In November of 2021 I started working part-time at the Cuyahoga Heights Service Department as part of the CVCC Early Placement Program. In June of 2022 after my graduation, I became a permanent part-time employee.

In my time at the service department, I have learned to use loaders, assisted with landscaping maintenance around the village and helped out with any jobs that needed to be done.

Outside of the service department, I work side jobs doing landscaping. I enjoy spending time with my friends and family. Going into the future, I hope to remain at the service department long-term."

Seasonal Laborer, Jacob Artino

"I was born and raised here in Cuyahoga Heights with my grandfather Jesse, and my sister Jaidenn. All throughout my school years, I attended Cuyahoga Heights and later the Cuyahoga Valley Career Center until I graduated in May of this year.

I began delivering newsletters and the Neighborhood News for the village four years ago. Then in the summer of 2019, I worked at the Cuyahoga Heights pool. Since the summer of 2021, I have been working at the service department as a seasonal laborer and park patrol whenever my school schedule allowed. I have learned a lot about landscaping/maintenance during my time here."

Service Employee Spotlight

Seasonal Laborer, Austin Neel

"I currently live in Middleburg Heights with my dad, stepmom and four sisters. I graduated this year from Walsh Jesuit High School and participated in the wrestling program.

This month I began working at the Cuyahoga Heights Service Department as a seasonal laborer. I have been working closely with the head landscaper and hope to learn from him and be a valuable asset to the village.

In my spare time I like to work out, fish and hang out with my friends."
