

From the office of your CFO, Angel Meriwether

Looking Ahead Together

Fall is here, and with it comes an important time for planning. As we head into the final months of the year, the fiscal office is working with the mayor, council and department heads to review where we stand and begin preparing next year's budget. This ensures we can continue providing strong services and investing in the future of our village.

Income Tax Collections: Prior vs. Current Year

Budget Planning for 2026

This month, we begin shaping next year's budget. This process involves reviewing department needs, evaluating ongoing projects, and prioritizing resources to maintain essential services and long-term financial stability.